

Sustainable Food Production (SFP)

SFP.124S Contribute to sustainable food manufacture

Unit Summary

This unit is about working in a sustainable way. You will need to work effectively to ensure the efficient use of resources and to minimise waste. In addition you need to assess your own performance and identify and implement opportunities to improve efficiency.

This unit is for you, if you work in food and drink manufacturing operations.

Related Units

This is a skill unit and the underpinning knowledge and understanding is set out in:

- SFP.115K Understand how to contribute to sustainable food manufacture

You must be able to:	This means you:
a. Contribute to sustainability in food manufacture	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Work effectively according to organisational production specifications</li> <li>2. Assess own performance to identify possible efficiency improvements</li> <li>3. Report accurately any opportunities to improve the efficiency of resource usage</li> <li>4. Report promptly and accurately variations in resource usage and any actions you have taken in response</li> <li>5. Implement actions to improve the efficiency of resource usage</li> <li>6. Follow procedures to effectively deal with and minimise waste</li> </ol>

Key Words

Resources	Raw materials, product, packaging, energy, water, transport
Procedures	Dealing with reuse, segregation, recycling and disposal
Waste	Raw materials, product, packaging