

Sustainable Food Production (SFP)

SFP.H3S Improve environmental performance

Unit Summary

This unit is about the skills required by people who develop and plan improvements to environmental performance. The standard looks at the planning, implementation and review of improvements to environmental performance.

Related Units

This is a skills unit and the underpinning knowledge and understanding is set out in:
SFP.H3K Understand how to improve environmental performance

You must be able to:	This means you:
a. Plan to Improve Environmental Performance	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Provide opportunities for relevant interested parties to contribute to planning improvements in environmental performance 2. Recognise potential obstacles to improving environmental performance during planning 3. Specify the benefits of improved environmental performance 4. Specify the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in implementing improvements 5. Develop measurable, timetabled and systematic objectives and targets 6. Ensure plans are consistent with organisational and legislative requirements
b. Implement plans to improve environmental performance.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 7. Ensure that the resources will support the implementation of plans to improve environmental performance 8. Implement plans in accordance with organisational and legislative requirements and within the required timescales and budgets 9. Implement plans in a manner which enables colleagues and others to contribute, ensuring that they have the information and skills needed 10. Implement plans in a way which maximises the benefits to the organisation and to the environment
c. Monitor and evaluate the implementation of improvements	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 11. Develop measures to monitor improvements implemented 12. Monitor and evaluate implementation in accordance with organisational requirements 13. Obtain the views of relevant interested parties as part

	of monitoring and evaluation <ol style="list-style-type: none">14. Establish the impact of the implementation and the benefits to the organisation15. Take effective action where implementation is not being achieved in accordance with the plans16. Communicate the results of the evaluation to interested parties17. Review the effectiveness of the monitoring process and use the results to improve future practice
--	---

Key Words

Environmental performance	Measurable results of an organisation's management of its environmental aspects
----------------------------------	---